Directors in attendance: Fern Kupfer, Barbara Pleasants, Martha Atkins, Bob Bernard, Chris Colvin, Sharon Guber, Carole Horowitz, Steve Ringlee

About sixty-five people attended the sixth annual South Campus Area Neighborhood (SCAN) meeting at Crawford School. The agenda included:

- discussion of the Campus Town Home Tour on October 12
- community resource police officer Harry Samms' presentation of "Crime free" housing
- City Inspector Cindy Houlihan follow-up of a recent "complaint" inspections tour of specific houses in our neighborhood
- SCAN board member, Sharon Guber relayed information about her service on the Ames Rental board
- Fern Kupfer talked about service on the Student Affairs Commission
- Helen Colvin, a recently hired public relations officer for SCAN, did a power point presentation about setting up a blog for SCAN members as a way we can further communicate with each other about neighborhood concerns.
- Adi Johnson, Ames Police department officer, invited residents to participate in a Campustown Safety Walk on October 6.
